The Daily Gazetteer.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13. 1743.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Petersbourg, March 26.

THE Court being resolv'd to make a speedy Tryal, of the Intentions of the Swedes dispatch'd Couriers both to Abo, and Stockholm, with full Assurances, that provided the Duke of Holstein-Uten was chosen to fill the Throne of his Ancestors, they might depend on their being made as easy in Terms of Peace as they could reasonably expect; since the Czarina had no ambitious Views, to satisfy which it would be necessary to encroach upon her Neighbours. But in case these Offers were refused, the Plenipotentiaries are charged to declare to the Swedish Ministers, that since their Nation has so high an Enmity against the Russians, it will become absolutely necessary to keep them at as great a Distance as possible; in order to which, her Imperial Majesty would employ the whole Force of her Empire both by Sea and Land. Messieurs Gmelin and Muller, who were sent by the Imperial Academy to make Discoveries in the North, have had surprizing Success; and we no longer doubt of discovering a Passage this way to China and Japan, which will appear by their Observations now in the Press. The People who inhabit Dagheſtan have sent to assure her Imperial Majesty, that provided they are furnished with a few Pieces of Artillery, they will undertake to preserve the Frontiers of the Empire on that Side from any Attempts of the Persians, without any Assistance.

Stockholm, April 5. The Crisis seems to be now over, and publick Affairs, thro' the wise Stand made by the Deputies of Finland in the Dyet, and the prudent Measures taken by the Russian Court, seem to be once again turned into a right Channel. The Friends of the Prince of Denmark brought on the great Question as to the Succession, and lost it by a Majority of three hundred forty two against 276, whereupon new Instructions were sent to our Plenipotentiaries at Abo on the 3d, and Orders have been given to suspend the Expedition into the Island of Aland. M. Buckwald, the Holstein Agent, is better received than formerly, and we not only begin to conceive good Hopes of the Peace with Russia, but also that his Danish Majesty will no longer oppose the Succession of the Duke of Holstein-Uten, since it has been proposed that his Imperial Highness the Duke of Holstein-Gottorp shall make an absolute Cession to his Majesty of the Duchy of Sleswick, under the Guaranty of the Crowns of Russia and Sweden, and of the Maritime Powers. It is said that this Expedient has been very well relished by Count Birkenten, and it is hoped will become the Basis of a Treaty that will effectually restore the Tranquility of the North.

Naples, March 26. An Express arrived last Week from Count de Gages with Advice, that he is retiring with the Spanish Army under his Command towards the Frontiers of this Kingdom, and that without the Countenance of his Majesty's Troops it would be impossible for him to make good his Retreat. Upon this, Orders were instantly issued for all the regular Forces to assemble at Aquila, the Capital of Abruzzo, as also for raising the Battalion of the Kingdom, that is all the Militia, which shews the Depth of our present Distress. Last Friday arriv'd two Couriers from Madrid with Letters from the King and Queen of Spain, insisting absolutely on our Forces joining those of the Count de Gages; but it is much doubted whether their Request will be complied with, since we have certain Intelligence of an English Squadron being again upon our Coast.

Modena, March 28. The Spanish Army commanded by the Count de Gages, decamped Yesterday Morning from the Neighbourhood of Bologna, having sent their Baggage, Artillery, and Sick before them. They march'd with such Diligence, that a Courier coming from Rome met them the Day following at Forlipopoli. This forc'd March has cost them dear, a Multitude of Soldiers having deserted. As the Count de Gages was obliged to leave a great Number of Sick and Wounded at Bologna, who were not able to bear the Fatigue of the March, he has written a very polite Letter to Marshal Traun, desiring his Excellency to take these poor People into his Protection; this he readily promised, and that he would be as careful of them as if they were his own Troops. We do not as yet know the Number of them, but it must be very considerable, since the Spanish General has left with them a Commissary, two Surgeons, four Mates, and the Field Chest of Medicines. This is one of the happy Effects of that great Victory the Spaniards boasted so much of at Campo Santo. The Queen's Troops live at Discretion in the Ecclesiastical State. The Bishop of Ferrara, and four Deputies from that City, have applied themselves to Veldt-Marshal Traun, to intreat him to moderate the Contributions raised by his Troops. All the Answer they received was, that he was obliged to act pursuant to his Instructions; and that they could not be at a Loss for the Reason that the Austrian Troops did not regard the Ferrarese as a Neutral Country. The like Answer was given to the Deputies from Bologna. The Piedmontese Troops are absolutely at the Command of Count Traun; but it does not appear that his Excellency has any Intention to pursue the Spaniards very far. To say the Truth, it seems altogether needless, such Numbers of them find their Way back; no less than 2000 are on the Road hither; so that the Count de Gages has lost near a fourth Part of his Army in three Days, by Desertion. The Fact may seem incredible, but it is a Fact for all that; and amongst these Deserters there are no less than 125 Officers. It is said the greatest Part of these Deserters will immediately enter into the Service of the Queen; which will enable us to send a grand Reinforcement to the Assistance of his Sardinian Majesty, who persists in his Resolution of attacking the Spaniards in Savoy, as soon as the Season will permit.

Franckfort, April 14. The Emperor has demanded of the States of the Empire, that they should furnish, for ready Money, Provisions necessary for the Army of Marshal Noailles, which is very shortly to enter the Empire, in order to oppose what may be attempted by the English, and the rest of the Queen of Hungary's Auxiliaries; and for this Purpose he has issued his Letters Requisitorial to the States within the Circle of the Upper Rhine. On the 9th in the Evening there arriv'd an Express from London, who was sent away again the next Morning. Yesterday several Field-Officers of the English Troops arrived in this City, but they are all return'd to their respective Corps except one, who receives several Visits incognito from the Foreign Ministers. The Innkeepers have received Orders, to send every Evening to the Magistrates a List of the Strangers who lodge at their Houses, and all Strangers are strictly examin'd at the Gates of the City. Our Magistrates held an extraordinary Assembly last Night, and afterwards sent a Deputation to Count Konigsfeld, Vice-Chancellor of the Empire. We apprehend that this relates to the Reception of the English Troops, which are in full March hither. On the 10th a great Body of them arrived at Rhingau. We are assured that these, and those which follow them, will remain in our Neighbourhood till the whole Army assembles, and till the Election is over at Mentz. In the mean time, the Earl of Stair has caused it to be intimated to several German Courts, that the Army under his Command will by no means act against the Emperor, but is intended purely to oblige the French to leave Germany, and thereby afford an Opportunity for re-settling the Tranquillity of the Empire. But notwithstanding these Declarations, his March has occasioned great Emotions here; and it now appears plainly, that the English are invited hither by some of the Princes and States who pretended to protest against their passing the Rhine. We are still assured, that the Emperor is on the Point of departing, but whether we cannot certainly tell; except that he intends to draw nearer Bavaria, in order to encourage his Troops. On Advice that a great Body of Austrians are attempting to penetrate thro' Saltzburgh, Veldt-Marshal Seckendorff has detached all his Cavalry, and six Regiments of Foot, to reinforce the Troops in those Parts.

Ratisbon, April 11. It is now very apparent, that the Fury of the War will fall this Campaign on the upper Palatinate. Several Detachments of French Horse and Foot are already march'd thither, and the Day before Yesterday the best part of the Garison of Stadtamhoff began to move that way. A Camp is traced out for this Army at Neumark on the Road to Nuremberg. We are still of Opinion that the French will make an Effort to succour Egra, and we are confirmed in this by Count Kevenhüller's detaching 10,000 Men of his Army to join that of Prince Lobkowitz. The Austrians have not abandon'd Schwandorff, as was reported, on the contrary, they have begun to fortify it.

Nuremburg, April 14. Marshal Broglio set out Yesterday for Anberg, and a large train of Artillery is speedily to follow him, whence it seems probable that the prevailing Report of his Excellency's intending to attack the Austrians in case they persist in their Resolution of besieging Egra is not ill founded.

Spire, April 12. The Warlike Preparations in Alsace are beyond all Comparison greater than we have ever seen. The Forces drawing towards Landau come from Languedoc, and the most distant Provinces in France. It is said that they will pass the Rhine 70,000 strong, in order to force the Austrians and their Auxiliaries to a Battle, that the War may be determined in this Campaign.

Paris, April 12. The Day before Yesterday arriv'd an Express from Frankfort, whose Dispatches were of such Importance that an extraordinary Council was immediately call'd, of which the Ministers had but an Hour's Notice. The King on Holy Thursday wash'd the Feet of 12 poor Men, and waited upon them at Table; the Dishes were brought up by the Dauphin, the Duke de Chartres &c. The Prince of Conti, and all the Princes of the Blood are set out for the Army. The Count de Renaudin was arrested tother Night at his Lodgings, and carried to the Bastile, but on what Account is not known. Our new Lottery does not fill at all, which is attributed to there being too many small Prizes. Since the Arrival of the Express sent by the Count de Sade, with the News of the English passing the Rhine, the Clerks of the War-Office have never been in Bed, but have been employed Night and Day in writing Orders.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Phyſicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes, whether occaſion'd by too ſevere purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio ſui, or any other Cauſe whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Conſequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, ſince they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous Syſtem, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorſalis, or Conſumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Conſumption, which frequently terminate in Death itſelf.

All ſuch, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effuſions, Involuntary Emiſſions, exceſſive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakneſs of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtleſs be glad to meet with a certain, ſafe, and ſpeedy Cure, which they moſt aſſuredly may, by taking only a ſmall Quantity of a tranſcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now publiſhed for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the moſt Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as alſo all other Weakneſſes of the Back, Reins, Seminal Veſſels, and Urinary Paſſages, whichit almoſt inſtantly cures, bringing to rights and reſtoring all thoſe Parts and Paſſages to their natural Tone and priſtine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doſes of it only.

This tranſcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither diſagreeable to take, nor occaſions the leaſt Diſorder, but is a wonderful Reſtorative in all Weakneſs and Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, and particularly ſtrengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Veſſels to an immenſe Degree, inſomuch that in any Debility of them, one Doſe of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Perſons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weakneſſes of any Sort, or Weakneſſes of the Urinary Veſſels, who take it, will in three Days time find it ſo very effectual, that they will be moſt agreeably ſurpriſed at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accompliſh ſuch a ſafe, ſpeedy and perfect Cure of ſuch difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be ſaid in it; and this All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purpoſes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its abſolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Raſſon's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, which whomſoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakneſs he is afflicted with, ſucceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Diſeaſe is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary.

LONDON: Printed for M. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-Noſter-Row,
